

DIAGNOSTIC CODE – INTERIM SOLUTION

We recognize there are specialty specific issues that need to be considered around diagnostic codes and interpretation fees. Interim codes for Internal Medicine, Radiology and Pathology have been created for interpretations that do not currently have the necessary codes. This will assist in the transition period and will serve as an interim solution until such a time where a permanent technical solution is developed. These codes will be uploaded to the vendor systems in time for the respective go-live dates.

Radiology

- R999 has been created as an interim diagnostic code to be used for radiology interpretations.

Pathology

- P999 has been created as an interim diagnostic code to be used for pathology interpretations.
